A stylish, single column design with near silent telescopic movement (500mm of vertical travel) that includes integrated (and hidden) power distribution as standard.

The clean lines of the stand create a seamless blend with its surroundings, the base plate simply disappears in most environments. This unobtrusive plate anchors the mount to the floor, using 4x10mm fixings, for complete security and peace of mind.

Additional function and control is tailored to your needs through a range of accessories. Standard models have a maximum screen size of 130kg and 86".
